Introduction

The Marae within the Bay of Plenty region

Our marae are the very souls of our whānau (family), our hapū (sub-tribes) and our iwi (tribes). For Māori the marae is a wāhi tapu where ritual encounters are performed, important issues are discussed and debated (whānanga) and where our deceased lie before they enter the spiritual realm. The whareāra is adorned inside and out with representations of our tipuna (ancestors). A reminder to all of our whakapapa (genealogy).

The information was gathered by Bay of Plenty Regional Council staff, much of which was obtained directly from each district council and verified by people of those marae, the families, the sub-tribes and the tribes, themselves. Council is warmly appreciative to this generous support and assistance. This map is the fruition of those efforts.

This compilation provides only the names background explanations are not mentioned. Such information is held by the people entitled to retain such information, the various tribal spokespersons and living repositories of that knowledge.

This publication can be cited as a reciprocal gift to our ancestors who have passed on and especially to all of our marae that stand proudly and tall. The following 'identity call' (manawhara) represents a tribute to us all and to all of the marae of our region.

E tū, e tū, e tū,	Stand tall, stand tall, stand tall,
E tangi, e tangi, e tangi,	Weep on, weep on, weep on,
Mō te aha?	For what purpose?
Mō ō tātou marae,	For all of our marae
Awahi atu, awahi mai,	Embrace offered, embrace received,
Awahi atu, awahi mai,	Embrace offered, embrace received,
E awahi ē, kōkiri	Embrace on, to the close

Marae information

This information has been kindly provided by the region's district and city councils, by members of the community and staff. We also acknowledge the meticulous work of Onehou Phyllis (Ngāti Awa kāmūtaua and cultural project advisor) in updating the map. Mention must also be made of Waaka Vercoe (former Māori Policy Manager) who assisted throughout the initial stages of this resource.

Limitations: Some marae belonging to iwi based within the Bay of Plenty fall outside of the Bay of Plenty Regional Council region and therefore have not been included in this resource. In addition, while most tangata whenua were happy for their marae to be included, others preferred that the information not be recorded and for this reason some marae have been purposely omitted.

We also acknowledge that there may be inaccuracies or omissions. Please feel free to lodge any concerns or provide feedback. All queries to Māori Policy Section, Bay of Plenty Regional Council, PO Box 364 Whakatāne, phone 0800 884 880 or email info@boprc.govt.nz
